

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	Building Construction/ finishes(2)	course number
face-to-face	pre-requisite 703231		703232
The course aims to study finishes and architectural details, cladding materials and their types in architectural construction, main finishing works for ceilings, floors, main walls, kitchens and bathrooms, wood works, iron, aluminum, plastic (windows and doors of all kinds and their installation), various metal works in buildings, paints and their types and construction on axes with fixed dimensions emphasis on insulating materials (moisture, heat and sound) and protection ways from various climatic factors.			