

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	History & Theory of Architecture(2)	course number
Blended	pre-requisite 703241		703242
This course identifies the development of architecture in the cradle of Christianity and the civilizations of the eras that followed, from Byzantine, Romanesque and Gothic until the end of the Renaissance. It also makes analytical comparisons of historical examples from the prominent eras until the era of the revival of classical styles in Europe and the theories associated with this period of architecture.			