

Teaching type	Credit hours(3)	Islamic Architecture	course number
Blended	pre-requisite 703242		703342
This course introduces the development of Islamic architecture since the beginning of Islam, the architectural character and cultural heritage of the architecture of Islamic countries. In addition to the social, environmental and functional relations that made architecture in the Islamic world the most suitable habitat for the Muslims. The course includes the study and analysis of models of Islamic historical and heritage buildings, focusing on the related theories.			