

Vision and Mission of the Computer Information Systems Program

Program Vision:

Excellence in Computer Information Systems education and graduating qualified professionals capable of supporting institutional digital transformation.

Program Mission:

To provide balanced academic and practical education in information systems that focuses on meeting the needs of organizations and the labor market, while enhancing skills in analysis, development, and technical management.