

Vision and Mission of the Health Information Systems Program

Program Vision:

Excellence in employing technology to serve the healthcare sector and improve the quality of healthcare services.

Program Mission:

To provide specialized education in health information systems that integrates technical knowledge with healthcare needs, while promoting ethical practice and health information security.