

Vision and Mission of the Smart Devices Application Development Program

Program Vision:

Leadership in developing innovative smart solutions that serve society and the digital economy.

Program Mission:

To provide an academic and applied program that keeps pace with advancements in mobile computing, while developing skills in innovation, teamwork, and professional responsibility.