

Program Vision:

Excellence in preparing innovative specialists in artificial intelligence and data science who contribute to digital transformation and the knowledge economy.

Program Mission:

To offer an integrated academic program that combines theoretical foundations with practical applications in artificial intelligence and data science, while developing analytical, innovative, and research skills to serve society and the labor market.